

How to Read a Tweet.

For each of the 'Tweets Below' , answer the accompanying questions to see if you can fully explain what is being communicated in each Tweet.

- Q.1 Who sent this Tweet?
- Q.2 Who sent the original message?
- Q.3 What term in the message indicates that the message being Tweeted was originally from someone else?
- Q.4 What symbol in the message indicates the name of another Tweeter?

Answers, See next page....

Answer Sheet

Q.1 Who sent this Tweet?

ANSWER: SchoolGovernor

Q.2 Who sent the original message?

ANSWER: bucks_herald

SchoolGovernor RT @bucks_herald: Has your school been affected by the boycott of SATS #Aylesbury #Buckinghamshire about 5 hours ago from TweetDeck bucks_herald Has your school been affected by the boycott of SATS #Aylesbury #Buckinghamshire

about 5 hours ago from web

Q.3 What term in the message indicates that the message being Tweeted was originally from someone else?

ANSWER: RT or ReTweet

Q.4 What symbol in the message indicates the name of another Tweeter?

ANSWER: The @ symbol indicates that the next word, phrase is the name of another Tweeter.