

A network of staff and students developed and funded by Jisc to support curriculum enhancement and innovation.

What we do:

- Support students working as change agents in colleges and universities
- Network and connect staff and students working in partnership on curriculum change projects
- Communicate and influence good practice
- Publish the Journal of Educational Innovation, Partnership and Change
- Run an accredited course for staff and students on being an Institutional Change Leader

Participate by:

- Joining the network mailing list CAN@jiscmail.ac.uk by visiting www.jiscmail.ac.uk/CAN
- Submit an article to the Journal of Educational Innovation, Partnership & Change <https://journals.gre.ac.uk/index.php/studentchangeagents/pages/view/submissions>
- Follow us on Twitter @CANagogy
- Visit our website for the CAN Student Partnerships Toolkit - resources to support staff-student partnership working <http://tiny.cc/can001>
- Participate in the series of CAN webinars to share best practice
- Share your experiences with us as part of the CAN case studies
- Sign up for the SEDA Institutional Change Leader Award

For further information, please visit www.changeagentsnetwork.co.uk or contact Sarah Knight (s.knight@jisc.ac.uk)

A project funded by Jisc